Church Connections is now up and running (<http://connect4life.org.uk/church-connections/church-connections-introduction>) making C4L resources easily available for churches and their members. A flyer is attached for your information – please forward this to your church leader! The android version of the Best Connections app can now be downloaded from Google play and the final touches are being added to the apple version. An adapted online version of both apps is also available (using the Blue Stacks emulator): <http://connect4life.org.uk/connections-apps/best-connections-app> and <http://connect4life.org.uk/connections-apps/my-connections-app>. The seven core documents of the Best Connections app provide nearly 500 quotes and insights. Plans are progressing well for Olaf and Peter's visit to Northern Ireland in September – the theme which has been requested is 'Disconnection and Reconnection'. The organiser of the event received a comment from a church leader, delighted to hear about this as it is just what his church is focussing on for 2016. Olaf has meetings lined up this month with a leader of a large Surrey church, and with a Diocesan Director of Mission for the Anglican Church.

Praise - Thank God . . .

- for an opportunity to speak at a local church on 14 June
- for the meetings arranged this month
- for online advertising and a featured press release to churches in Norfolk and region
- for a featured article with the Methodist Evangelical Network
- for the publicity given in Evangelism UK (an initiative of Churches Together in England): http://www.cte.org.uk/Articles/358237/Home/News/Latest_news_articles/EvangelismUK_news_1500th.aspx
- that we sense His favour, especially on the online and video ministry side. Numbers accessing the free ministry resources are multiplying. The videos have had well over 1000 new downloads since they were reformatted and publicised. Please share C4L Connections with other church leaders and Christian friends so they can be fully utilised, and support mission around the world - <http://connect4life.org.uk/overview/how-does-c4l-work>

Prayer - Please pray . . .

- for planning for the visit to Northern Ireland, and practical arrangements to be made
- that the Best Connections app will be fully completed very soon
- for those who have been testing the Best Connections app
- for Olaf's key meetings on 16 and 17 June with church leaders
- that the advert for Best Connections due to go out in the Greenbelt magazine this summer (up to 20000 attending) will be effective
- for good contacts with further churches and response to the Best Connections cards going out
